PARTY TO HONOR MRS. BOHMAN.

Miss Alice Carlson entertained Wednesday night at a post-nuptial party in honor of Mrs. Clarence R. Bohman, when 15 girl friends were her guests. The home was decorated with pink carnations. Chief among the games of the evening was one in which the bride was principal and the other guests interested spectators, when she followed an intricate web of string until she collected a goodly array of kitchen utensils, gifts of the friends gathered. The girls, blindfolded, drew pictures of their future husbands, and in this Miss Mabel Ahi won a prize. Each guest was then given a chocolate and material for a bride's dress and the clothes pin bride winning most favor was that given by Miss Anna Holberg. The hostess served a delicious two-course luncheon as a final diversion.

LUNCHEON TO HONOR VISITORS.

Twelve friends of Mrs. John Weyerhaeuser of Tacoma, Wash., Wednesday enjoyed the gracious hospitality of Mrs. S. S. Davis of Rock Island, who entertained at a beautiful luncheon honoring Mrs. Weyerhaeuser and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, a charming and beautiful young woman, who are visiting relatives in Rock Island.

The service was laid at one large table among the fragrance of spring flowers, jonquils and sweet peas used in floral adornment, arranged in an attractive centerpiece and in four silver vases. Crystal candlesticks wound with greenery and holding tall pink candles were used on the table and also gave of their illumination about the rooms. Places were marked for Mrs. George W. Crampton, Mrs. E. H. Slight, Mrs. E. B. McKeever, Miss Mary Hull, Mrs. W. E. Tolles, Mrs. Charles S. Kerns, Miss Clara Anthony, Mrs. C. A. Banister, Miss Edith Swan, Mrs. Harry Ainsworth, Mrs. Frank Bennett of Belle Fourche, S. D., Mrs.

The afternoon hours were spent informally, fancywork claiming the attention of all as they visited.

PRE-NUPITAL ATTENTION.

Miss Helga Danielson and Miss Laura Frederickson entertained at a shower Wednesday evening at the Frederickson home, honoring Miss Ellen Ellison, whose marriage to Carl Swanson of Moline is to take place next month. There were 22 guests who entered into the spirit of the occasion and who showered the bride-elect with pictures for the new home—pictures large and small and all most interesting. There was a perfect tangle of lines leading from the cellar to the attic, through every room in the house, and these the honor guest followed until she made the generous and beautiful find at the end of the maze, close under the roof. There were refreshments to climax the event.

HOSPITAL CIRCLE WITH MRS. JOHNSON.

January meeting of the Twin-City hospital circle was held Wednesday with Mrs. Carl Johnson, 737 Fourth street, Moline. A season of genuine sociability was in order and during a short business meeting $3 in dues were collected. The hostess served nice refreshments. In February the circle will meet with Mrs. Gilbert Peterson, 409 Fifth avenue, Moline.

EDUCATIONAL COMMITTEE OFFICERS.

Bethany Home Educational committee met yesterday morning in the Manufacturers' hotel and elected officers, choosing the following to serve for the ensuing year:

Chairmen—Mrs. A. Mosenfelder, Rock Island; Mrs. G. A. Stephens, Moline. Vice Chairmen—Mrs. M. C. Rice, Rock Island; Mrs. C. P. Skinner, Moline. Secretary—G. Elaine Mowry, Moline. Treasurer—Mrs. J. K. Scott, Rock Island.

LUNCHEON FOR PUPILS.

Miss Elizabeth Nott entertained her pupils who recently gave a song recital at her studio, at a prettily appointed luncheon Tuesday at the Riverside tea room in the Putnam building, the party being especially for Mrs. Ruston Carrier of Rock Island, who at the time of the recital was Miss Harriet Sheldon. Covers were laid for 10 at the table. The decoration consisted of a bouquet of pink Killarney roses.

R. O. B. CLUB WITH MRS. RHINEHART.

The monthly meeting of the R. O. B. club was held yesterday when Mrs. A. M. Rhinehart, 745 Twenty-fifth street, Moline, acted as the hostess. Three tables of 500 was the afternoon diversion with favors falling to Mrs. Noah Huddle, Mrs. John Miles and Mrs. W.

C. Loptien. A lunch was served at the conclusion of the games at the small tables. Mrs. Gus Smith will entertain the club in four weeks at the home of Mrs. Roy Smith in Silvis.

DINNER PARTY HOSTESS.

Mrs. August Horstman entertained at dinner yesterday six ladies at her home, 545 Seventeenth avenue, Moline. At 1 o'clock a four-course dinner was served with covers laid for Mesdames Henry Holtz of this city, William Miller, Rudolph Dorbeck, Charles Hintz, Adolph Efflandt and Caroline Stoltz. In the afternoon the ladies occupied themselves with their fancy work, and at 4 o'clock they were served with a lunch. The afternoon proved a most enjoyable one.

LADIES OF VASA ENTERTAINED.

Ladies of Vasa enjoyed the afternoon yesterday as the guests of Mrs. A. C. Bladel, who entertained at her home, 1224 Twelfth street. After some time spent with fancy work and visiting, the ladies were served with a lunch by the hostess.

WILLING WORKERS ENTERTAINED

Norwegian Willing Workers were entertained yesterday in the home of Mrs. Frank Larson, 1023 Fourteenth street. Following the transaction of routine business at the opening session, the time was spent with fancy work, visiting and general sociability and Mrs. Larson served her guests with a lunch. Mrs. Henry Frank, 1102 Twenty-sixth street, will be the February hostess.

ETUDE CLUB WITH MRS. KOHN.

Many members and invited guests were in attendance at the fortnightly meeting of the Etude club held yesterday in the home of Mrs. Louis Kohn, 824 Twenty-third street, when a program of Russian music was given. Mrs. Selma Albrecht read an introductory synopsis of Russian music and played the first number on the program, "Romance," by Rubinstein. The program:

Miss Violet Koch, piano.

Miss Margaret Ohde, violin.

Mrs. Underhaun, cello.

At the close of the program the ladies were invited to remain for a time of sociability and they were served with refreshments in the dining room where the table had as its center a mound of pink and white geraniums with a lovely arrangement of oak leaves on the chandelier above the table. The club was invited to meet in two weeks with Miss Elsa Haack in Davenport.

RELANCE CLUB SOCIAL SESSION.

A social session of the Reliance club of Grace Lutheran church was held last evening, Joshua Hasselquist acting as host at his home, 3427 Ninth-and-a-half avenue. Routine business matters were disposed of followed by a time of sociability when Mrs. Hasselquist served a fine lunch.

150 COUPLES AT DANCING PARTY.

A company of 150 couples enjoyed the dancing party given last evening by Woodmen of the World at Odd Fellows' hall, one of the series of winter parties. Blener's orchestra played for dancing. The next of the series will be held Thursday evening, Feb. 10, at Odd Fellows' temple.

JANUARY GUILD COFFEE.

The January coffee of the Woman's guild of South Park Presbyterian church was held yesterday in the home of Mrs. W. O. Litten, 1514 Twenty-ninth-and-a-half street, many members and friends enjoying their hostess' hospitality. Mrs. Catherine Quayle, president of the guild, presided at the business session when routine matters were discussed. Victrola music entertained the ladies and they busied themselves with fancy work, refreshments being served at the close of a delightful afternoon.

SCHERER-SHERMAN ENGAGEMENT.

At a pretty "old fashioned" party given last evening by Miss Maile A. Sherman at her home in Davenport, announcement was made of her engagement to George J. Scherer of the Thirty-eighth street road, this city. Miss Sherman entertained the P. Q. C. girls at a dinner, the engagement being made known by means of double hearts pierced with cupid darts. In the center of the table was a Jack Horner pie from which pink and white ribbons extended to each plate and when drawn were found to be attached to pretty favors. Pink and white nut cups, shaded candles, etc., completed pretty table appointments. There were games later and the affair was most enjoyed. Miss Sherman graduated from the Davenport high school, the Cosmopolitan School of Music in Chicago and Brown's Business college and has been employed in the advertising department of the Western Milling company office in Davenport. Mr. Scherer is the son of Jacob Scherer of this city and since his graduation from the high school has been associated with his father in the management of farms in the Rock river valley.

MRS. DEUTSCH TEA HOSTESS.

Mrs. Isaac Deutsch, at her home on Main street, Davenport, is entertaining 80 tri-city ladies this afternoon at a tea. The house is decorated in flowers of early spring with tulips, daffodils and narcissi. In the dining room where a collation is served Aaron Ward roses are used as the floral decorations with yellow shaded candles, candy sticks, etc., to carry out a lovely effect. Mrs. Walter Chambers and Mrs. Hugh Burr pour and assisting Mrs. Deutsch are Mrs. Fred B. White, Mrs. G. W. Harkness, Mrs. Thomas W. Griggs and Miss Ann Crunen.

ENTERTAINS DORCAS GUILD.

Mrs. G. C. Wenger, at her home, 1207 Twenty-eighth street, entertained the Dorcas guild of Trinity Episcopal church last evening with the game of progressive hearts as the main diversion. Miss Margaret Foote and Miss Grace Holcomb were the winners of favors in the games. The young women enjoyed the evening very much and they were served with a fine lunch.

SOCIETY SPENDS AFTERNOON QUILTING.

Quilting occupied the time of the Ladies' Sewing society of the German Evangelical church yesterday at their meeting in the church basement. In the late afternoon a committee from the society served a lunch while the ladies enjoyed a time of sociability.

MRS. PITMAN EMBROIDERY CLUB HOSTESS.

Fifteen members of the Tri-City Embroidery club enjoyed the afternoon yesterday as the guests of Mrs. A. J. Pitman, who entertained at her home, 2412 Eighteenth street, Moline. Fancy work of all descriptions occupied the time of the ladies and they were entertained with a program of victrola music. Lunch was served and the usual enjoyable afternoon had passed. Mrs. Rose Trevor will be the next hostess, entertaining in two weeks.

SOCIAL CLUB WITH MRS. FITZPATRICK.

Mrs. F. R. Fitzpatrick at her home on Ninth street yesterday afternoon entertained the South Rock Island Social club members at their fortnightly meeting. Cinch was played at two tables, Mrs. Elizabeth Dingeldein, Mrs. Peter Schlueter and Mrs. James Ellis taking the prizes in the card games. Lunch was served in the dining room after the games. Mrs. Ed Dierolf invited the ladies to be her guests in two weeks.

MISSION SOCIETY WITH MRS. SCHAFER.

HOUSE HOLD HINTS

- THE TABLE.
Dried Beef in Cream—Shave beef very fine; pour over it boiling water, let it stand for a few minutes, pour this off and pour on good cream; let it come to a boil. If you have no cream add milk and butter and thicken with a very little flour. Egg may be added the last thing by dropping in middle of gravy. Season with pepper and serve on toast or as you like.
- Veal Birds—Take veal steaks or chops and trim. Make dressing of bread crumbs, a little minced onion, pepper and salt, and the veal trimmings which have been fried lightly in a little butter or drippings. Put this dressing on each steak and roll, then fasten with toothpicks, put in skillet with a little butter; fry lightly on both sides, then pour on enough hot water to cook nicely and set in oven to finish cooking.
- Stuffed Beets—Wash half cup rice and sprinkle it in a kettle of boiling water. Boil rapidly 15 minutes and drain. Chop cupful of nuts, mix them with rice, and small teaspoon salt and a little pepper. Scoop centers from cooked beets, fill space with the rice mixture, stand them in baking pan and bake 20 minutes. Chop beet taken from the center very fine, add it to a cream sauce and pour around beets after they are dished.
- Vinegar Cookies—These cookies are delicious and will keep moist two weeks. Beat two eggs, add two cups brown sugar, one scant cup lard, one teaspoon salt and half teaspoon nutmeg; mix well, add three tablespoons vinegar and flour enough to make soft dough, adding two teaspoons of soda to the flour. Nuts or raisins may be added for variety.
- Crumb Cake—Two cups brown sugar, two cups flour, butter size of egg, a little salt. Mix like pie crust and take out about two-thirds cup of crumbs for top. Add scant cup of sour milk and one teaspoon of soda in the milk. Put crumbs on top and bake in good-sized pan.
- Molasses Cake—One-half cup shortening, one-half cup brown sugar, one-half cup molasses, one-half cup cold water, one and two-thirds cups flour, one cup chopped raisins, two eggs (save whites for frosting), one teaspoon soda. Put chopped raisins in frosting. This cake is fine and inexpensive.
- Fig Pudding—One cup figs, one cup English walnut meats, one cup of bread crumbs, one cup brown sugar, one cup milk, two teaspoons baking powder. Cut figs and nuts fine and sprinkle with flour to keep them from settling to bottom. Bake slowly one hour. Serve with whipped cream.
- Paranip Rolls—Boil two large parsnips, press through colander; add one quart hot milk, one teaspoon salt, one-half cup butter, one yeast cake mixed with one-fourth cup sugar, enough flour to make stiff batter. Allow to rise twice its size, knead some flour into it, let rise again, divide into small pieces, lay on buttered tins to rise for 10 minutes. Bake 20 minutes in hot oven.
- Pineapple Pie—Beat one-half cup butter, one cup sugar and yolks of three eggs to a cream. Add one can grated pineapple. Dissolve one tablespoon cornstarch in cup of sweet cream and add to pineapple. Mix thoroughly. Beat whites of the eggs stiff and fold in lightly. Have ready a pie plate line with crust, fill with pineapple mixture and bake in moderate oven.
- Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) When I was 15 I went with a boy 17 and we went together two years steady. We went to parties and parks and every place to have fun, and he acted as though he loved me very dearly. He gave me nice presents at Christmas time and every time he came down he would bring me a box of candy. After a while he stopped coming and started going with other girls. When he was going with these girls he would come back and want to go with me again, but I would not let him. But I loved him all the time. I would have liked to have him go with me, but I wouldn't let him come back. It has been two years since he quit. I am 17 and he is 19 now. I have been sick in bed a week, and the first night I was sick he came down to see me. He didn't know I was sick. It surprised me because we have not been speaking. He has been down to see me every night since I have been sick and every night when he leaves he says he will be down the next night. What shall I do?
- (2) Do you think he comes down to make up with me or not?
- (3) Do you think he is coming down now because he loves me?
- (4) Please advise me whether to take him back as a sweetheart again.
- (5) I have light hair, a little darker than golden, brown eyes, a very fair complexion. Would you call me a blond? If not, what would you call me?
- WORRIED GIRL.
- (1) Let him come to see you, but don't let him come as often as every night. Once or twice a week is often enough. If you let him come too often he will tire of you.
- (2) I see no other reason why he should go to see you.
- (3) He comes because he likes you. Boys of 19 rarely love a girl very seriously.
- (4) Let him come to see you as a friend.
- (5) You are a blond.
- Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am a girl 22 years old. One evening I was with a school girl and we met two boys, classmates of hers. We spent quite a pleasant evening together and when we got home one of the boys asked if he might call on me some evening. He is a very interesting boy. Would it be all right to let him call?
- (2) There is a boy two years my senior who calls on me quite frequently and of whom I am very fond. He always comes to me with all his troubles and discouragements and tells me all the little personal things that he right close to his heart. Do you think he loves me? Not, why does he do this?
- (3) What colors will be popular this spring?
- (4) My hair is very oil. In three days' time after I wash it is impossible to do it up. Can you suggest a remedy?
- DOROTHY DARE.
- (1) Yes.
- (2) He likes you very much, but it may be a friendly liking instead of love. He finds you a sympathetic listener.
- (3) Coral and bright shades of blue.
- (4) Tincture of alcoholic cantharide, one dram; tincture of capsicum, one-half dram; tincture of nuxvomica, two drams; cocoa oil, three quarts.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) When I was 15 I went with a boy 17 and we went together two years steady. We went to parties and parks and every place to have fun, and he acted as though he loved me very dearly. He gave me nice presents at Christmas time and every time he came down he would bring me a box of candy. After a while he stopped coming and started going with other girls. When he was going with these girls he would come back and want to go with me again, but I would not let him. But I loved him all the time. I would have liked to have him go with me, but I wouldn't let him come back. It has been two years since he quit. I am 17 and he is 19 now. I have been sick in bed a week, and the first night I was sick he came down to see me. He didn't know I was sick. It surprised me because we have not been speaking. He has been down to see me every night since I have been sick and every night when he leaves he says he will be down the next night. What shall I do?

ters of an ounce; alcohol, two and one-half ounces. Shake before using. Massage nightly into the scalp before retiring.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am 18 and am very much in love with two different fellows. One is very attentive to me and I really believe he loves me, but I do not care so much for him as I do for the other one whom I know likes me but does not show it. I would like to have him. What should I do? Drop him and make him think I like the other fellow?

ANXIOUS GIRL.

You are too young to worry about love. Have both the boys for friends. Perhaps the boy whom you care more for is unfit and too young to consider marriage. Be patient and let things take their natural course.
